04

Normal Dehydrated

Nothing added — the cleanest way to taste the fruit itself.

Plain and unseasoned — just the fruit or vegetable, dried.

This is the format that carries our core promise: no added sugar, no oil, no preservatives. Available across our whole fruit and vegetable range.

05

Dehydrated + Masala

Our house blend, dusted on once dried — sour, salty, a little heat.

The same range, dusted with our Signature Masala once fully dried — sour, salty, umami, with a little heat. A dry spice dusting only, applied after drying, so it never adds sugar or moisture to the product.
